

21 November 2017

13.00 – 15.00

SOLIDAR – Rue de Pascale 4-6, 1000 Brussels

Organisers

EAEA, LLLP

Debate

How can we ensure a better life for everyone through learning?

Upskilling, CVET and adult learning for changing labour markets and complex societies

Objectives:

- To raise awareness for the opportunities and benefits that adult learning (in all its forms) offers for improving lives
- To understand and analyse good practice examples from different sectors / areas of ALE that improve people's lives
- To understand and discuss policies and frameworks, especially current European strategies that promote and support upskilling, adult education and CVET in order to make this learning possible
- To bring different stakeholders (EP, EC, CS, Social Partners ...) together to reflect on how we can ensure that everyone can participate in high-quality adult learning and education and how current EU strategies can best be implemented
- To reflect on cooperation and partnerships for the implementation of these programmes
- To draw conclusions, proposals, recommendations

Agenda

Welcome words & Introduction

- MEP Liliana Rodrigues, MEP Emilian Pavel
- Setting the scene: Dana Bachmann (EC) and LLLP/EAEA (Gina) – PIAAC and a summary of the recent CEDEFOP study; a view from civil society, based on the EAEA country reports

Discussants

- Andreas Koth, EVBB, presentation on C-VET
- Joyce Black (National Learning and Work Institute) basic skills and ALE + Citizen's curriculum
- Challenges and proposals:
  - Tatjana Kiilo, Deputy Head of the Analysis Department from the Ministry of Education and Research, Estonian Presidency
  - Dana Bachmann, European Commission
  - Thiébaud Weber, ETUC
  - David Lopez, La ligue de l'enseignement
  - Moderator: Brikena Xhomaqi, Lifelong Learning Platform

Closing words

- MEP Liliana Rodrigues, MEP Emilian Pavel

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union