Acting for Global citizenship education today for the future generations of tomorrow

Concept

In today's global context, education is a key aspect when it comes to shaping attitudes, building competencies and reinforcing society's core values. Therefore, it is vital to fully understand our role and responsibility as educators towards future generations. Through this event, we wish to bring together decision-makers, experts and practitioners from several education sectors, to explore and explain how our cooperation and practices regarding intercultural and global citizenship education influence the shaping of future generations today and therefore affecting the world of tomorrow.

Agenda

Promoting European Values in Global Citizenship Education

- Opening speech by MEP Domènec Ruiz Devesa

Using best practices to take down obstacles

- Valentina Pomatto, EEE-YFU - Promoting Intercultural Understanding and cooperation (YFU Coloured Glasses);
- Lucija Karnelutti, OBESSU - The role of schools and formal secondary education (Engaging Schools students);
- Elisa Briga, EFIL - Fostering Active Citizenship (PEACE trimester exchange programme);
